CRUSADERS ASK HELP OF COUNTY BOARD IN PURGE

Request $7,500 to Conduct
Investigation of Slot Machine Operation

Atty. Charles E. Jack, appointed County gambling investigator, yesterday appealed to Attorney General Kerner for a ruling on the validity of his appointment. He was answered by Kerner affirmatively with the admonition to do his duty "honestly and fearlessly."

More than a week has elapsed since raiders traversed the length and breadth of Lake county and broke or confiscated all the slot machines in operation. Tuesday they returned to Antioch and picked up a number of comparatively inoffensive pin-ball machines, over the protest of a somewhat indignant group of citizens, while they were awaiting the decision of the county supervisors on the question of financing the crusade.

Attack Lesser Evil in Purge

Tavern owners and other business men who have operated the machines in and around the Lake region, have been put to some expense and inconvenience as the result of the raid, which seems to have more earmarks of a genuine crusade for morals than any of the raids preceding it, considering that many ministers and civic or religious organizations are backing it. There is a weak spot, however, in the fact that the clean-up campaign did not start with a much greater evil which is known to exist in the city of Waukegan. It is probable, however, that the crusaders hope to gather strength in the first offensive.

Ask for Appropriation

Atty. Charles E. Jack has been appointed special prosecutor in charge of the investigation. Mr. Jack states flatly that the money for the investigation is no small item and must be in sight before he goes ahead investigating. County board of supervisors is asked for an appropriation of $7,500 and they have taken the matter under advisement.

The board has just appropriated $10,000 for the employment of special deputies to enforce the law during the progress of the North Chicago Hardware Foundry strike, and Supervisors may look averse at this second request. Slot machines have operated in Lake county for many years and to date the county board has not seen fit to expend the taxpayers' funds to investigate them. Although the machines may provide an occasional thrill for the man or woman who likes to take a chance now and then, they are known to every intelligent adult for just what they are—a gaming device that's hard to beat.

Few children have ever been observed to play the slot machines around Antioch. Particular attention has been given to this by those who have permitted the machines on their premises and minors were allowed to operate the machines only when accompanied by their parents. The machines have proven a minor evil, and while every right-minded citizen is ready to uphold any true reform, it is to be regretted that many hard-pressed small business men may be put to the expense of trials and fines and loss of time that will be incident to this type of reform work. A warning of what was to happen and a request for co-operation might have been effective and caused less distress to these men and their families.

Legion Auxiliary to Have Pot-Luck Dinner

The members of the American Legion Auxiliary will gather at the home of Mrs. Ruth Ward at Channel Lake for a pot luck dinner Friday night at 7 o'clock. It is expected that there will be twenty or more guests.

This will be the first social meeting held in the last two months, since the meeting last month was omitted because of many affairs about the Lakes that claimed the attention of the Legion ladies.

The regular business meeting will follow the pot-luck dinner.

Dunes Park Offers Picture Prizes

Stephen V. Hotham, general manager of Illinois Dunes Park Association announces that $25 in cash prizes will be offered amateur photographers for best photographs or snapshots taken in the park prior to July 31, 1938. First prize will be $15, second $3, with seven prizes of $1.00 each.

All entries should be addressed to Contest Editors, Illinois Dunes Park, P. O. Box 1, Waukegan, Ill., prior to the date named. If photos are to be returned a self-addressed, stamped envelope should be enclosed.

Regatta Off at Channel Lake

Channel Lake Community club has called off plans for the Regatta which was originally planned for the last week in August. Several counter attractions to be staged about the Lake region that same week were partly responsible for the change of plans, but the main reason is the fact that Spring Lake and Fox Grove plan a carnival to raise funds for the rehabilitation of the many roads damaged by the recent floods throughout that section.

Damages done to county and state highways will be remedied by the county and state, but many cross roads and private roads can be repaired only by local funds, consequently the stricken region is resorting to a carnival to restore these roads. Even some of the homes in the Fox Lake region suffered a great deal of damage.

The Channel Lake Community club held a meeting Tuesday night and decided to abandon their plans for a regatta in favor of the stricken area.

NORTH CHICAGO STRIKERS HALTED WITH TEAR GAS

Robt. Wirtz, Strike Leader,
Is Sentenced to 120
Days in Jail

Latest reports from the North Chicago strike are to the effect that 218 independent employees are back at work today, with no resistance from CIO pickets. Yesterday afternoon a meeting took place in Waukegan between officials of the beleaguered plant and CIO organizers, with the hope of working out a settlement. While awaiting the decision 300 CIO men and sympathizers pledged themselves to continue the strike if the 10% wage reduction is not abandoned.

The striking employees of the North Chicago Hardware Foundry were temporarily halted in the seventh week of their strike early this week when their leader and ten of the pickets were sentenced to jail in Judge Dady's court and the mass of men and women strikers and sympathizers were routed from the foundry grounds by the police armed with team gas bombs.

Robert Wirtz, college bred leader of the strike, who comes from outside the community and has been able to give no authentic reason for his leadership of the strike, was treated severely by Judge Dady. Wirtz, whose circulation of violently communistic pamphlets has incensed the court, was warned by Judge Dady that he cherishes ideas which the "people of this community do not like." It was necessary that he be taught a lesson, the judge added, reminding Wirtz that he could sentence him from one to two years, instead of to 120 days as he did.

The sentences were imposed on Monday, and on Tuesday the police routed the strikers on the foundry grounds, allowing 60 or more non-strikers to enter the plant. Tear gas bombs were hurled at the 400 strikers and sympathizers and they retreated in disorder. One group hurled bricks at the police. A score or more gas bombs were hurled back at the officers. One of the CIO leaders wore a gas mask and tried to block one of the gates. About two hundred women, young and old, were among the crowd dispersed. Police guards remained about the foundry to protect the returned workers.

Jim McMillen Gives King Kong Satisfaction Tomorrow Night

Jim McMillen, Antioch's great heavyweight, will meet the much-touted King Kong, Abyssinian wrestler, in what may be termed a satisfaction match at the Grayslake Arena tomorrow night. The Abyssinian wants satisfaction for the wounded feelings he suffered in his match with McMillen a couple of weeks ago, when he dropped wrestling and took to rock-ated in turn by his managers that he is bringing along some twenty-five body guards, to be scattered through the crowd. Supplementing the bodyguards and adding color to the scene will be a few squads of policemen surrounding the ring.

The last King Kong-McMillen match drew a crowd estimated at about 1000 and it is expected that the crowd tomorrow night will break the attendance record at the Grayslake arena. Several good preliminaries are on the card.

LEGION NAMES DELEGATES AND ELECTS OFFICERS

State Convention Will Be Held in Rockford in August

The Antioch post of the American Legion will elect their officers for the coming year at the meeting to be held next Thursday night. The delegates to the 10th district and to the State convention will be named at the same time, also the alternates.

It is customary to name one delegate and one alternate and these are usually the outgoing and the incoming commander. The outgoing commander is Ernest Glenn and the incoming commander is most probably Warren Edwards, since it is the accepted order of things that the Senior Vice-commander succeeds the Commander to that office. Edwards now holds the office of Senior Vice-commander.

The officers to be named next Thursday evening are Commander, Senior and Junior Vice-commanders, Finance officer, Sergeant-at-arms and Chaplain.

The state convention of the Legion will be held in Rockford this year and that city is making elaborate preparation for the entertainment of the Veterans. Two thousand rooms in private dwellings have been turned over to the convention housing committee, and in case the city runs short of accommodations they will have the tent city at Camp Grant as an emergency hostelry.

The date for the convention is Aug. 20, 21, 22, and 23. The National Commander, D. J. Doherty, will be present, coming from his home in Roxbury, Mass.

Mosquitoes Took Cow for a Ride

If anybody doubts that this is a record year for mosquitoes he has only to hearken to the story of a farmer, who resides near Waukegan and who would rather his name wouldn't be used in the story, just for the simple reason that he doesn't like fraternizing with mosquitoes and their ilk, and is a bit ashamed of the enforced association.

Believe it or not, this is his story: One evening last week a police officer called the farmer by telephone, asking in the name of the law whether he owned the cow that was supposed to be browsing about a certain pasture nearby. The cow wasn't browsing, he added, but was cavorting about something awful and the farmer was going to have to do something about her disturbing the peace.

The mystified farmer agreed that a bawling, bucking, hysterical cow was no asset to the peace and dignity of any community and said he's certainly do what he could to quell her morose outburst of enthusiasm. He repaired to the pasture, took one squint at the galloping cow and knew that the time had come for desperate measures. The cow's body had become the meeting place of thousands of mosquitoes. Hardly an inch of the cow was visible and the mosquitoes were boring in as one mosquito, and the cow was fit to be tied.

The farmer mixed up a thick substance of something black and sticky like tar, only not quite so permanent, roped the cow and poured it all over her body. It was then removed, together with thousands of mosquitoes, by means of a scraper, then the cow was covered with a two-fold sheet, tied about her body.

The cow went back to her cud-chewing, the farmer to his newspaper, the officer to his beat, the neighborhood to rest and all was quiet again along the pasture front.

L. O. Bright Is Ill in Waukegan Hospital

L. O. Bright, principal of the Antioch High school, is in the Victory Memorial hospital at Waukegan, a victim of one of the most trivial ailments which turned out, in his case, to be not so trivial.

An ordinary carbuncle made its appearance on the back of Mr. Bright's head a week or two ago and caused so much pain and discomfort that it was finally considered necessary to dispose of it with an operation. He was removed to the Victory Memorial hospital, at Waukegan, where the operation was performed by Dr. Joe Foley, of the hospital staff.

Mr. Bright is at present improving, but Mrs. Bright states that he will not be able to return to his home for another week.

ZION HAS GREAT CHANCE TO GET HIGH SCHOOL

$135,000 PWA Grant Is Offered City of 6500 with No High School

Zion and Libertyville are among the Lake county cities whose school systems will benefit from PWA grants. Zion has been allowed a grant of $135,000 toward the building of a high school, and Libertyville a grant of $39,272.

Libertyville people accepted the grant with alacrity, floating a bond issue of $50,000 for the 55% of cost which the city receiving a PWA grant must bear. The money in Libertyville will be used to erect a public school building of a basic-Georgian style to replace the old Central school. The new building will be started about the middle of August, and school will be taught in the old building until the new one is completed.

The acceptance of the Zion grant depends on the attitude of the people. Zion, a city of nearly 7000 inhabitants, has once before defeated a high school proposition at the polls. At that time the chosen site for the school seemed to be the issue that defeated the plan to build. Now, the city administration officials have chosen a new site along 27th street, and it is believed that it will prove more generally satisfactory with the people.

The school situation in Zion has created many battles and several lawsuits for dissolution of the high school district. Strife existing between religious factions in the city is to an extent responsible for the lack of city-wide co-operation on the high school proposition. Boys and girls of high school age have attended high school at Waukegan and Grayslake, paying tuition fees. A public meeting will be held in Zion Friday of this week at which the tentative budget for the new fiscal year will be presented. The new building appropriation will be included in it.

If the appropriation is approved a special election will follow at which voters will definitely decide the issue. If the appropriation is not approved by popular vote the $135,000 grant will necessarily be turned down.

Chain O' Lakes Ladies Had One Perfect Day

Monday was probably the first ideal day, as to weather, that has fallen to the lot of the feminine golfers who look forward to Ladies' day at the Chain O' Lakes Club, just south of Antioch. Monday was crisp, peppy and perfect, and thirty-two ladies sallied out to the club and put in the day.

Some of the ladies trudged the greens with their golf clubs, others kept sweet and cool at the bridge tables. All met on common ground at noon when Mrs. Fred Hawkins served one of those delicious lunches for which the club is getting to be famous. Mrs. George Gerber and Mrs. J. J. Morley, Jr., carried off the golf prizes and the bridge awards were won by Mrs. Ben Burke, first, Mrs. George Bauer, second, and Mrs. J. Leesley, third. Low score prize went to Mrs. Elmer Brook.

Antioch Stores Plan Week - End Values

Antioch merchants are co-operating this week-end in a sales event that should bring many shoppers into Antioch. Various stores are advancing some unusual values and it is an opportunity for the thrifty shopper to save dollars by buying at home, and buying at home means making jobs for Antioch people.

The Antioch stores serve the people of the city by giving them shopping opportunities that can not be bettered in larger cities. Visitors remark on the quality of the Antioch business section, where merchandise and styles meet the demands of the most discriminating. The people in turn show their appreciation of this fact by shopping first at home, and turning to other cities only after they are satisfied that the particular article wanted can't be found in Antioch. This co-operation on the part of the home people makes it possible for the city to have better stores than many other cities larger than Antioch.

The lateness of the summer season finds the home stores well-stocked with summer merchandise, and it is due to this fact that the home merchants are advertising unusual values this week-end. Not only home people will be attracted by these items, but the summer cottagers will recognize their value.

LIONS INTERNATIONAL HAS NEW PRESIDENT

Association Elects Walter F.
Dexter of California for Year

The International Association of Lions Clubs has a new president. Walter F. Dexter, of Sacramento, California, was elected to the office yesterday at the International convention, held in Oakland, California. Ten thousand delegates and their families attended the convention.

Mr. Dexter, formerly secretary to the Governor of the State of California, succeeds Frank V. Birch, of Milwaukee. Mr. Dexter is now superintendent of Public Instruction in his county and is a member of the board of forty recently appointed by the Los Angeles Board of supervisors for the simplification of county government. He has long been active in Lions club work. He is a native of Chicago.

North Chicago Plans Political Meets in Aug.

North Chicago will stimulate political interest and bring a few hundred outsiders into town by observation of political party days the first week in August.

August 3 will be Republicans' day and August 4 will be Democrats' day. Everybody and the candidates are invited to be there. County candidates of both parties will be introduced on their respective days, and speeches will be made by the two candidates for the United States Senate. In case Richard Lyons, now absent on a campaign trailer-tour, is unable to attend he will be represented by another speaker.

North Chicago business men are sponsoring the two programs.

Mrs. Carter Johnson and daughter, Judy, of New Orleans are spending several weeks with Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. Eleanor Micheli, and other relatives at their home at Bluff Lake.

LIONS NAME HEADS OF AUG. COMMITTEES

Start Arrangements for a Midsummer Festival of Three Days

Monday night's session of the Lions club was given over almost entirely to discussion of the summer festival to be staged in Antioch, under the club's auspices, on August 12, 13 and 14, when it will conflict with no other Lakes programs, so far as officials of the club are able to ascertain.

The following Lions were named to head the various committees: Ed Vos, Elmer Rentner, Robert Mann, James McMillen, Wm. Rosing, James Horan, and Mayor George Bartlett.

The festival is planned for three days and a great many amusements and games will be scheduled to provide entertainment for the Lake visitors, of whom the midsummer should bring thousands. Contests will be arranged for competition of men, women and probably youngsters. Nothing will be omitted that is necessary to the success of the festival, which the Lions plan for stimulation of Antioch business and the popularizing of Antioch as the amusement center of the Lake region.

At noon Wednesday following Monday's meeting, the club directors met at luncheon with the committee heads, and the members of the committees were named.

One of the interesting features planned for the festival is a 1000-pound ox barbecue.

ANTIOCH AWAITS PWA GRANT

City Officials Are Diligently Working to Obtain It for City Hall

City administration officials are going forward with their attempts to secure a PWA grant for the building of a city hall, but as yet have nothing definite for publication.

The city has long been in possession of a lot that is ideal for the location of a city hall. This is the site of the present Antioch hotel on Main street. The lot was originally purchased as the site of a probable new postoffice, but it is pointed out that it is large enough to comfortably accommodate both buildings, should the PWA grant be secured, and should the plan for the building meet with the approval and co-operation of the people.

Due to unfamiliarity with Antioch streets and names, a new writer on the News last week erroneously located the city-owned lot across the street, on the site of the Ball hotel (formerly the Antlers). The Ball hotel is operated by Mrs. Rhona Ball, and has no connection with the lot purchased several years ago by the city.

ANTIOCH FUTURE FARMERS WIN IN PLANNING CONTEST

In a dairy barn-planning contest conducted by the Starline Mfg. Co. of Harvard, Illinois, throughout the United States and Canada, the names of two young men of this community appear among the winners.

Otto Gussarson was presented with a Starline floor scraper and Gordon Pierce received a Starline milk stool for their efforts in drawing plans of what they considered ideal dairy barns.

Both boys are members of The Antioch Chapter Future Farmers of America and sophomores in the Vocational Agriculture Department of the Antioch High School.

The prizes were awarded through the Williams Store and C. F. Richards, dealers of Starline equipment. The Grand Prize of a pure bred dairy cow was won by Glenn Lewis, a Michigan farmer.

Mrs. Carl Rindfleisch and daughters, Flora and Irene, of Portland, Oregon, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ries and daughter, Dolly, spent Sunday in Kenosha with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Raasmussen.

Economic Highlights

According to some of the experts, the upturn in the stock market was the result of a heavy, sudden influx of foreign money into American securities. Foreign capital, so the story goes, took the view that values were at extremely low levels, and that the market was a real bargain counter. The foreign financial invasion gave a surge of confidence to American investors, who began buying. Then the investment trusts, which had generally been out of the market for some time, waiting for what seemed the low point, stepped in and the major rise resulted. The gains have been generally held, with only minor reactions, on the basis of the latest quotations at the time this column is written.

Irrespective of the cause of the stock rise, there are some welcome signs on the business horizon to indicate that it is justified by the position of commerce and industry. The barometers have not gone far ahead of their spring lows as yet. But the tangible and intangible factors affecting the late summer and fall outlook are definitely improving. There are sound grounds for arguing that, even though nothing like a boom can be anticipated, the bottom has been passed, and that the last half of the year will be substantially better than the first. The upward trend, in the view of most authorities, is due to start in August, after the traditional July shut-down in various industries, notably the automobile, and to continue at a slowly accelerating pace.

Biggest late industrial news was the price cut in steel, initiated by U. S. Steel. This has resulted in some new orders, and much heavier orders are anticipated. It is known that some industries have been holding off buying steel because they believed that a price slash was an imminent possibility. Now that the price slash has occurred these industries are surveying their low inventories and again coming into the market. The cut on finished steel, according to Iron Age, amounts to about 5 1/2 per cent.

Car loadings remain at poor levels—but there is even an element of encouragement here, in that ever since the third week in April, says Business Week, the rate of loss as compared with the year before has steadily declined. Best improvement in car-loadings has been in the field of merchandise shipments.

Electric power output is also tending upward again, in spite of the fact that household load declines in summer, which indicates a renewal of business activity in some quarters. Output is running substantially under last year, but is coming gradually closer to that level. The inventory situation remains favorable, especially in consumers' goods lines. Most experts think that inventories have just about touched their lowest possible point, and that buying will steadily improve. The outlook for buying in the new industrial field, on the other hand, is far less favorable.

Also of great significance is what seems to be a material improvement in the state of mind of some business leaders who are gaining the opinion that the cycle is due to start upward again—for how long, no one knows. And a considerable amount of capital is coming out of hiding.

Summing up, best guess is that activity will slowly improve, but that there will be no sharp upturns in the production indices. No one believes we are on the verge of a boom as we were in 1936. Many believe that progress will be consistently made—but that it will be hard, slow going, and that there is no immediate prospect for regaining 1937 levels. Many feel that security values have come up about as far as they will for some time, and that they will hold to about the current level.

The President's Trip

The Administration's "purge" is definitely underway. The President has stated that he feels himself at liberty, being head of the Democratic Party, to take a hand in state primaries if he so desires. And according to all of the Washington correspondents, the purpose of his swing around the country was to endorse candidates he wants to see sent to Congress, and defeat of those who have opposed his major policies. The acid test seems to be the Judicial Reorganization proposal. Those who voted for it are considered good New Dealers by the Administration. Those who voted against it, irrespective of their records with respect to other legislation, are mostly in the dog house.

The President gave Senator Barkley of Kentucky an extremely warm endorsement. This primary is regarded as a major test of New Deal strength. If Barkley loses, it will be a serious blow to the Administration. If he wins, it will be a significant victory.

So far it is hard to gauge the trend from the primaries that have been held. The New Deal has both won and lost battles in several states. There has been no landslide—either way. The tale is not yet told.

WILMOT

At the annual business meeting of the voters of district No. 9 motions were made and carried to have a term of nine months school next year; to raise $500 by taxation to add to fund now in treasury to meet expenses for the school year; Roland L. Hegeman was elected treasurer for three years to succeed himself. Thirty-six were present and listened to the reading of letters to be offered to the high school district, by the president, Winn Peterson, of the school board. The matter was explained in detail by Attorney Chester Richardson, of Kenosha, but action was deferred until both boards have discussed the question in a joint meeting.

Medicine From Gourds

Gourds appear in medicine and in olden times nearly all members of the family had some such use. Purgatives are the chief medicines derived and come from roots of some and from leaves of others. Elaterium is a drug obtained from the juice of the squirting cucumber. When ripe the prickly fruit, two inches long, explodes with a loud report. One end is blown out and the pulp, including the seeds, are projected several feet. This move gets the seeds away from the home base—so that they may "run to other bases" and spread themselves. The small wax gourd of Asia is considered an emblem of fertility.

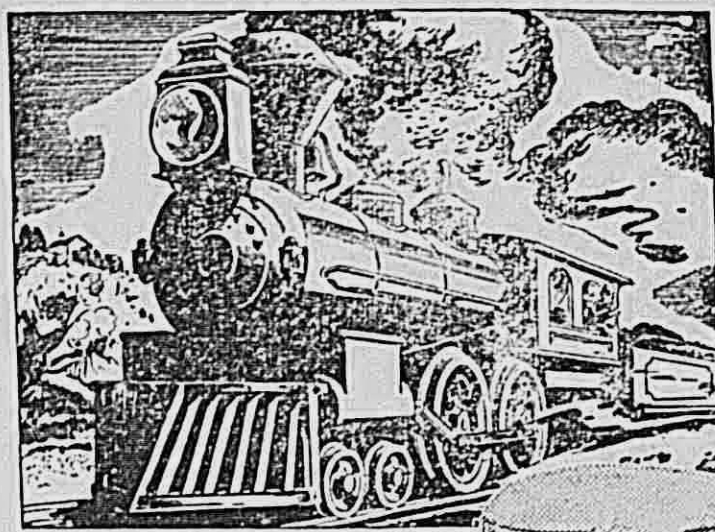

Habits of the Hummingbird

The hummingbird camouflages its nest (hung from horizontal branches for safer wind sway) with moss and cobwebs, for the nest itself using soft fibers held together by spider's silk.

U. S. WILL UNSEAL CAVE LONG CLOSED

Sequoia Wonder to Be Opened to the Public.

Sequoia National Park, Calif.—Development of Crystal cave, one of the world's largest and most beautiful caverns, will begin this summer under supervision of national park service officials.

The natural wonder in Sequoia National park has been kept closed since its discovery 20 years ago because funds were not available to provide adequate approaching roads and trails inside the caves. Funds were included in the recent Interior department supply bill, however, and the public soon will be able to see the beautiful formations and caverns.

The caves include two long tunnels and eight circular rooms ranging from 40 to more than 100 feet in width and from 20 to 60 feet in height. The tunnels are from 10 to 20 feet wide, and extend for 2,500 and 1,500 feet, respectively. They have a broken ascent of about 100 feet from end to end and a zigzag course.

Authorities who have visited the cave and are most familiar with other subterranean caves of the world have declared Crystal cave surpasses all others in beauty and variety of decoration.

All parts of the cave are covered with stalactites and stalagmites of varied size, form and color.

Warned by the destruction of careless tourists, the national park service has kept Crystal cave closed, pending appropriation of funds for its development.

Clough's cave, a nearby cavern with delicately colored stalactites and stalagmites, virtually was ruined by visitors, who broke the formations, darkened the interior with fires and marked up the walls.

Crystal cave was discovered April 28, 1918, by A. L. Medley and C. M. Webster, employees of Sequoia National park at that time. The cave was named officially by United States Commissioner Walter Fry, then the park superintendent, April 30, 1918.

Discover First Eskimo

Afflicted With Cancer

Ottawa.—Hope of the medical world that one race in the world was immune from cancer has been dashed by a report from Lake Harbour, on Baffin island.

Hitherto, scientists believed the Eskimo race was free from that disease, but reports reaching the department of mines and resources say that a native is afflicted with it.

So far as is known by Dr. L. D. Livingstone, medical officer of the eastern Arctic patrol, this is the first case on record involving an Eskimo. Every year doctors on the government's Arctic expedition examine hundreds of natives. In 1937, they inspected 700 and found no trace of cancer in any.

Many scientists have gone into the Arctic seeking a clue to cancer immunity in the Eskimo diet, which consists almost entirely of meat and fish. Despite the one case now discovered, medical men insist the disease is extremely rare, among natives of the Arctic.

Stradivarius Violin Is

Found in Old Junk Heap

Seattle, Wash. — Nancy Brenan, nine-year-old Seattle girl, has a $15,000 Stradivarius violin found in an attic junk heap.

When an elderly neighbor moved, she found the old violin and presented it to Nancy, who is musically inclined.

Nancy's uncle had it restrung, and found that it had an unusual tone. Closer examination showed the Latin inscription inside "Faciet Anno 1713, Antonius Stradivarius, Cremonensis."

The violin was compared with an authentic "Strad" owned by E. B. Deming, Bellingham, Wash., and found to be almost identical. The inscription was the same.

College to Offer Course

in Problems of Consumer

Oberlin, Ohio.—Students in economics at Oberlin college next semester will be offered a course in the marketing of goods from the consumers' point of view.

"The study of the consumers' viewpoint will supply a constructive analysis of certain widely-recognized weaknesses in the present system of commodity distribution," said Prof. Harvey A. Wooster, head of the department of economics, in announcing the course.

Diet Alters Color of

Hair in Experiments

Wooster, Ohio.—Diet may control the color of the human hair to some extent, at least, a nutrition expert told delegates to the Ohio Academy of Science session.

Dr. Charles Hunt, associate in nutrition at the state agricultural experiment station here, said that omission of vitamin B-6 in feeding of rats caused gray hair. Feeding it in liberal quantities, he said, restored the hair to its former color.

BARGAIN-HUNTER
TELLS HER FINDS

Home Stores Have Intriguing Lot of Styles and Staples

It's surprising what you can buy with a very little money right now, and as for styles, if you know how to pick 'em they can take you right out of the dumpy class and set you up there with your stream-lined sisters. In the Mari-Anne Shop, which dominates the south end of Main street, so far as the women are concerned, we saw a display of swanky wash frocks that transported us into the land of heart's desire.

It's funny about the frocks at Mari-Anne's. You can make up your mind what you're going to put into a dress before you go into the place and even though it's only a dollar-ninety-eight you'll find what you want at the price you want it for. That shop carries several prices, starting at the modest figure named, and every dress bears the brand of a famous designer, so you simply can't miss looking like a Fifth Avenue model in the dress you buy there. Even the play suits have a charm that can't be matched in the efforts of less gifted designers. Anyhow, MariAnne and her saleslady have the gift of telling you the truth about how you look in the frock you're trying on. They don't tell you you're a double for Loretta Young in the dress that really makes you look like Martha Raye at her wildest, and that helps tremendously when you're in doubt.

Gifts for Back-home Folks

Wandering into King's drug store we were tickled to death to run into a full line of toilet articles from one of the most distinguished English houses. They even showed us lovely gift packages made up of these powders, perfumes, et cetera, such as would delight the heart of some friend who, unable to take a vacation this summer, is still sweltering in the city. In this one world-famous brand of toiletry King's have ten fragrant odors and the cologne is offered in an array of small bottles, exclusive as you please, but costing only the modest sum of two-bits in the small bottles. We liked that, because if there's anything we do like to be exclusive about it's colognes and perfumes, and those small individual packages make it possible to buy the right things.

The really new novelty item was at Sabin's. They had a lot of accessory things fashioned of fish-net. Believe it or not, it comes in every color and in shapes to be used for head-covers, scarfs, sashes or belts. Quite nifty, and the price for any piece is only 50c. Of course Sabin's is known as the place to buy exclusive gifts, and the Hollywood handkerchiefs you find there have a distinction all their own. There are the most amusing novelty gifts, like syrup pitchers that can't leak, and such miracles.

At Webb's we were intrigued by any number of 5 & 10c articles, but maybe we lingered longest at the magazine counter where it is possible to buy practically any magazine you want. The Webb store is more than thirty years old and the fact that all these years have been spent in that one building has given them a clientele that is pretty much like a family circle—a very big one, in its constancy.

Easier Money Than WPA Pay
Williams Department store surprised us with a display of boys' wash trousers ranging from eight to ten years, regular longies to sell around a dollar a pair. We had just spent a day shopping in another city and found only one pair, not half so good-looking as those displayed at Williams'. Any woman who has an eight year old boy knows that it's practically impossible to buy long trousers in wash fabrics for him, and some boys won't wear the shorts, what with skinned knees and scratched legs and mosquito bites.

Otto Klass' Men's store holds out a lure for the fashion-minded male during the next two weeks. It's a tailored suit, made to individual measurements, that can be had for that limited time at a price that's going to make many a little woman wish she had been born a man. That's saying a lot, but money saved is money made and even on WPA it isn't made as easily as it is by buying at Klass' store while this buy is to be had, for there's a $10 saving on these tailored suits for the next week or more.

Bailiffs Seize Cat for Back Tax Bill

St. Joseph de Beuce, Que.—Town Clerk Joe Lessard had a bill for $10.90 against Mrs. Honore Faucher for alleged unpaid taxes and sent bailiffs to her house to "seize what is seizable." The bailiffs returned with Mrs. Faucher's cat.

CAT TURNS ON GAS, ENDANGERS 3 GIRLS

Timely Arrival of Neighbors Prevents Tragedy.

Des Moines.—Less than 24 hours after three young women of Des Moines received a cat as a mouser, the animal brought death close to the girls by turning on a gas burner as they slept.

The girls are the Misses Lavona and Evelyn Hove, sisters, and Miss Helena Adair. They occupy a basement apartment in the rooming house of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boughner.

A few days ago the girls heard a mouse in their room. Learning of this, Miss Adair's mother offered the cat as a solution. The three girls promptly installed the cat in the apartment and named her Tippy.

It was about 1 a. m. when the girls retired. Tippy was lying curled up in a corner, apparently content.

A little before 6 a. m. Boughner went to the house furnace in the basement. When he returned to his quarters a few minutes later he told Mrs. Boughner there was a strong odor of gas in the basement.

"I can smell it up here," Mrs. Boughner replied. "Say—I wonder if it can be coming from the girls' apartment? You know it's right below this room."

The couple hurried to the basement, knocked on the apartment door, but received no answer.

"I thought right then that they were dead," Mrs. Boughner said. "The gas was so strong it almost knocked me down," she said. "I yelled several times and then one of the girls answered. Mr. Boughner ran into the room and opened the windows."

"We found that one of the burners on the stove was about half-way open. That's where the gas was coming from."

The three girls were aroused and taken to the Boughner apartment. None suffered any apparent ill effect. Neither did Tippy.

All three girls were certain the gas had not been on when they retired. And certainly, they said, the burner had not been half-way open for five hours. This left Tippy as the only possible suspect.

"I guess it was a pretty close call," said Miss Lavona. "After this," added Miss Adair as she stroked the cat, "Tippy is going to have to sleep out nights."

Hermit Restless Under Regime of Civilization

Banff, Alta.—Billy Carver, seventy-one-year-old hermit of Johnson's Lake, wants to go home to his tiny, ramshackle cabin in the wilderness.

Carver has been hospitalized here since early in December, when he was found wandering on the lake shore in a state of semi-starvation. He dislikes "wimmen," and frequently informs nurses and hospital attaches to that effect. He recently made good in an attempt to leave the hospital secretly, but was later apprehended and returned to the institution.

Carver will be permitted to return to his mountain home for the summer as soon as he gains sufficient strength to make the trip. Living in his primitive abode, Carver cared little or none for information from the outside world.

Once or twice a year, he made short visits to Banff for his meager supplies.

Carver came to Canada in 1908, from St. John's Wood, London, England. He spent his early life prospecting in the mountains near his shack, and worked in the mines at Anthracite.

He was seriously ill three years ago. He told friends he had a large bank account in a Calgary bank. A full dress suit, complete in every respect, was found in his cabinet when the search was started for him last year, when he was reported missing.

Gold in Hen's Claw Leads to Real Nuggets in Yard

Bradley, Ill.—They struck gold here recently. Real gold nuggets! Mrs. F. W. Meyers was sitting open the gullet of a plump Rhode Island Red hen preparing chicken and dumplings. Out rolled two nuggets slightly larger than good-sized peas.

Mrs. Meyers showed them to her husband.

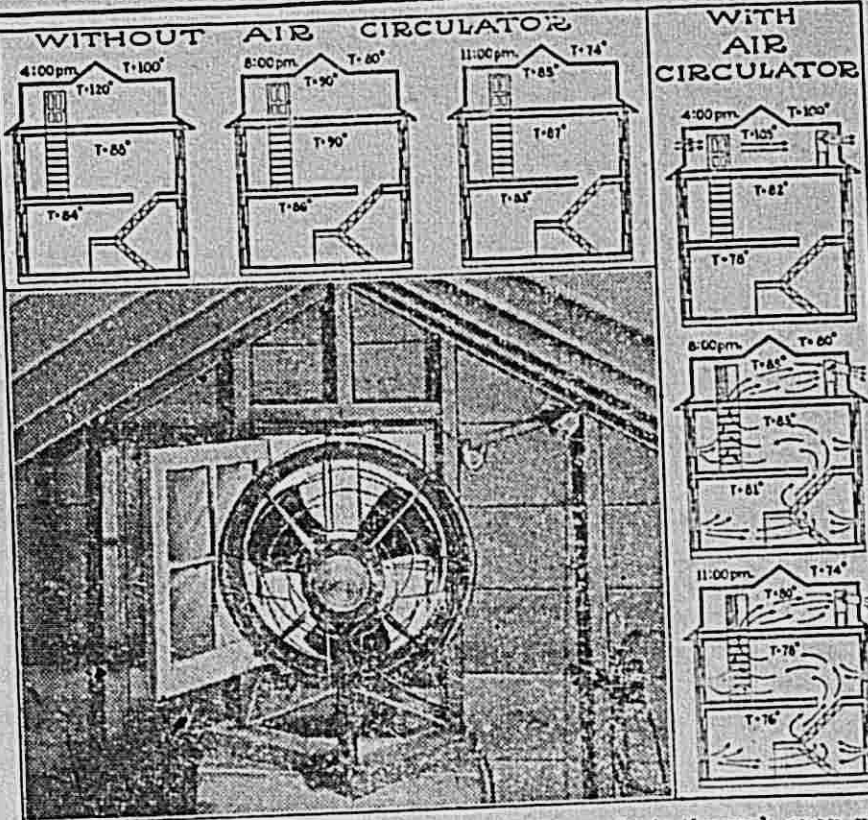

"That's gold, sure as shootin'," he said. He took them to a Kankakee jeweler, who confirmed his off-hand assay.

Meyers and his wife then dug up the whole back yard. They found nearly a dozen more nuggets, varying from slightly bigger than a pinhead to one the size of a marble.

Indian Mortality

Ottawa.—The death rate among Indians in Canada from tuberculosis is 12 times as high as that for the white population.

Make Your Attic Exhale

ENGINEERS have finally admitted what many have long suspected—that the attic in summer is a highly efficient heating plant. Long after the summer sun has set, the heat from its rays, transmitted through the roof, is still maintaining temperatures in the average home that are as much as 15 degrees higher than those outside. During the day the attic hoards hot stale air and carries it over into the evening hours as an oppressive blanket which seeps through to the lower floors, interfering with comfort and sleep.

The engineer's answer has been the development of the air circulator, a relatively inexpensive device, moving vast amounts of air and turning the attic into a comfort-producing tool. This large fan literally forces the attic to breathe, pulling in fresh air and exhausting old during the day, thereby preventing stagnation. At night, when the thermometer has fallen, the circulator pulls cool air through open windows downstairs, sucks it up stairwells, and exhausts it from the attic.

In an air conditioning proving home established by General Electric at Schenectady, tests were made with and without an air circulator in operation, under identical temperature conditions. For example, at 4 P.M., with an outside temperature of 100, the attic attained a reading of 120 without the circulator operating—but read only 105 when the device was working. At 8 P.M., with an outdoor temperature of 80, the circulator provided a first floor temperature of 81, five degrees below that obtained without it. At 11 P.M., when the outside thermometer registered 74, the second-floor bedroom temperature was being maintained at 78 by the circulator—nine degrees below that inoperative. Thus has the humble attic been transformed into a hot weather asset through an application of artificial respiration.

Dark Silk Sheers of Dress-Up Type

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

FASHION is in a decidedly dress-up mood for summer. The call is insistent for clothes daintily feminine, which accounts for the revival of softly styled afternoon dresses that show care in detail, and with which are worn as pretty beflowered hats and alluring accessories as one's budget will allow.

The dress-to-important-occasion spirit is especially reflected in the charming afternoon frocks which designers are turning out, fashioned of either black or navy silk sheer. Invest in an attractively styled sheer such as here pictured and you will be congratulating yourself the summer through upon your keen fashion foresight. No matter how "ritzy" the set in which you move, dressed in a gown of silk marquisette or chiffon as the case may be, in either black or navy and you will find that you are accounted as among the best dressed.

What's more, you will be poised and serene regardless the heat of a summer day in a cool silken sheer and to add to your comfort you will know that being dark your gown will carry its well-groomed appearance at all times. The importance of the vogue of the dressy dark sheer costume cannot be over-emphasized.

Looking toward summer, a "lady of fashion" can make no wiser choice than the stunning afternoon dress pictured to the left in the illustration. It is fashioned of starched marquisette with very deep ruffles and a fitted bodice. The hem is finished with a wide band of ruffles. The dress is shown with a matching taffeta skirt and a matching taffeta jacket. The mood of the moment for alluring detail. The jeweled heart adds yet another touch of glamor. It is part of fashion's scheme of things this season to top these lovely sheer gowns with bewitching hats colorful as they can be, to offset the dark tone of the sheer dress. The little straw pillbox with its gay little veil and flower accent which milady wears does just that.

For hot summer afternoons nothing looks cooler and feels cooler than a black chiffon dress with insertions of fine black lace to give it an air of lady-like charm. You will love the dress shown to the right. Its carefully detailed workmanship imparts an air of distinction that is of unmistakable appeal to women of discriminating taste. The lace yoke with its square neckline and cunning lace-embellished sleeves is highly flattering while the slenderizing vertical lines of the lace insert endows this model with special grace. And now comes the piece de resistance—a Watteau hat that is all roses and lilacs and delicate green leaves.

Women who regard the dark afternoon sheer as indispensable in the summer wardrobe have had the task of selection made easy in that through versatile styling there are types for every individuality included in this season's showings.

If you would have an ensemble that is interchangeable, so that it may be tuned to any occasion, add these items—a pleated cape-wrap to match the skirt, a bolero of the same sheer to wear over a bodice top made décolleté for formal affairs, and have your dressmaker design a fanciful waist, pintucked and frilly with lace for afternoon. Of course to carry out these manifold combinations it is assumed that the pleated skirt be so fashioned as to be easily detachable.

If You're Planning To Build

By W. S. Lowndes
Director, Schools of Architecture and Building

WHEN you are planning your house, no matter how inexpensive it may be, keep in mind how you will furnish it. The position of the windows in a bedroom often determines the location of the bed. This is only a detail in house planning but it looms important when the structure is completed. Sizes of the various pieces of furniture should be remembered at all times. Large pieces of furniture should never be placed against a window. Another matter that should be considered is the stock sizes of rugs and carpets. It is aggravating to find that a room is a few inches too short to take a suitable stock-size floor covering.

Light in Closet—It always is desirable to have light and plenty of it in a closet. The door should be arranged to open in such a manner as to permit daylight to shine directly into the closet. When cost does not forbid, an electric light should be placed in every closet. This light should be operated by means of a door switch that will turn on the light when the door is opened and turn off when the door is closed.

Dining nooks, alcoves and breakfast nooks are some of the names applied to small spaces just large enough to accommodate a table and two or four seats. A dining nook should be placed in the kitchen or adjacent to the kitchen so that steps will be saved in serving the meal. These spaces should be well lighted and arranged so that they will receive an abundance of sunshine in the morning hours. They should boast a cheerful and invigorating atmosphere.

SLEEPING-PORCH COMFORT IN EVERY BED ROOM!

Come in for your FREE Thermometer

Corrects Air Conditions Throughout the Entire House

That's just what an Attic Fan Night-Time cooling system does—brings you low cost sleeping porch comfort for every bedroom. Because this system corrects air conditions three important ways. ... First, it drives out hot, stale daytime air. ... Second, it draws in cool night air. ... And, third, it cools all rooms with constant circulation.

Here's all you do. Open your windows in the cool of the evening and start the fan. Run it during the night. Then, as temperatures lower hourly outdoors, you get constantly falling temperatures indoors, and your whole family may enjoy refreshing sleep.
